Reason For Life

I don't know how to say it but sometimes it seems to me
That maybe we are stationed where God wanted us to be;
That the little place I'm filling is the reason for my birth
And just to do the work I do He sent me down to earth.
If God had wanted otherwise, I reckon He'd have made Me just a little different, of a worse or better grade,
And since God knows and understands all things of land and sea
I fancy that He placed me here just where He wanted me.
Sometimes I get to thinking, as my labors I review,
That I should like a higher place with greater tasks to do
But I come to the conclusion, when the envying is stilled
That the post to which God sent me is the post He wanted filled.
So I plod along and struggle in the hope when day is through
That I'm really necessary to the things God wants to do.
And there isn't any service
I can give which I should scorn
For it may be just the reason God allowed me to be born.
