Invite a friend, neighbor, or families to church this Sunday, June 7. If they would like to join us for potluck following services, please call the office and let us know. We can't wait to make new friends.

Sunday, June 7, will be the quarterly potluck. Please bring a dish to share if you so choose. Social distancing will be practiced during this time of fellowship. The ladies would like to have everyone call to let us know if you plan to attend, so that they may order the correct amount of chicken. There will be ladies to help with serving, so that everyone is not touching serving utensils. Call to make your reservation.
