Thank you to the Worship committee

Vacation Bible School started on Sunday, what a busy place the fellowship hall was that evening. There were 39 kids registered to attend this year, we had 4 crews and about 3 leaders for each crew. The kids enjoyed singing first off, each evening, then they went and visited the different stations throughout the church. They had snacks, story time, crafts and activities playing games and learning about Jesus. On Sunday they learned about Moses and the burning bush, Monday they learned how God sent plagues on Egypt and on the last day they learned how God parted the Red Sea so the Israelites could escape slavery from the Egyptians'. The kids put on a play for their families, then everyone gathered in the fellowship hall to enjoy cookies and ice cream, furnished by the CWF.
